UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.

AMERICAN EXPRESS CO., et al.,
Defendants.

No. 10-CV-04496 (NGG) (RER)
ECF Case

STIPULATION REGARDING THE PROCEDURES
FOR THE TREATMENT OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
AT THE TRIAL SCHEDULED FOR JULY 7, 2014

Subject to Court approval, the parties hereto, through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate and agree that the following procedures will govern the treatment of confidential information at the trial scheduled for July 7, 2014:

A. Requests of Non-Parties

1. Insofar as they have requested redaction and/or sealing of intended trial exhibits, the parties will redact and/or seal intended trial exhibits consistent with the motions of the non-parties (Dkt. 392 (Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc.), 401 (Alaska Airlines, Inc.), 402 (Federal Express Corp.), 404 (Jetblue Airways Corp.), 406 (Visa Inc.), 409 (Exxon Mobil Oil Corp.), 417 (Southwest Airlines Co.), 421 (Vantiv, LLC), 424 (Best Buy Co., Inc.), 428 (Darden Restaurants, Inc.), 429 (Bank of America, N.A.), 434 (Mastercard International, Inc.), 435 (Citibank, N.A.), 443 (Frontier Airlines, Inc.), 444 (USAA Federal Savings Bank and USAA Savings Bank), 448 (Home Depot U.S.A.), 452 (World Financial Capital Bank), 453 (Sprint Corporation), 457 (PayPal, Inc.), 459 (United Airlines, Inc.), 463 (DFS Services LLC), 467 (Office Depot, Inc., OfficeMax Inc.), 470 (Juniper Bank), 473 (Official Payments Corp.), 474 (LQ Management LLC), 476 (IKEA North America Services LLC), 477 (Euromarket Designs, Inc.), 478 (A&P, Ahold, Albertsons LLC, BI-LO, CVS Pharmacy, Inc., H.E. Butt, Hy-Vee, Kroger, Meijer, Publix, Raley's, Rite Aid, Safeway, SuperValu, Walgreen Co.), 479 (Sears Holdings Corp.), 482 (Hilton Worldwide, Inc.), 494 (PayPal Inc.), and the motions of American Airlines, Inc. and U.S. Airways, Inc., Link2Gov.com, Inc. and Expedia, Inc., filed directly with this Court on June 9, 2014, except, consistent with the Court's June 19 ruling, Non-Discrimination Provisions in any merchant contract and any definitions used therein will not be redacted from the public record.

2. Insofar as they have requested redaction and/or sealing of intended trial exhibits that are consistent with the categories of documents requested in the motions of the non-parties described below, the parties will redact and/or seal the intended trial exhibits consistent with the requests of non-parties that submitted Declarations in support of Amex's motion (Dkt. 437 (Declarations no. 63, 78, 80, 82)), as well as the additional intended trial exhibits identified by the parties consistent with the requests of Davio's Restaurant Group and the Thomas Keller Restaurant Group;

3. Exhibit A hereto sets forth the specific documents that the non-parties have requested be redacted and/or sealed and the requested treatment. Exhibit A further sets forth the categories of information, subject to each non-party request. These categories are, generally:

- a. Co-Brand Agreements
 - i. Highly confidential co-brand agreements and addendums, as well as documents reflecting the negotiations thereof;
- b. Global Network Services (“GNS”) Contracts
 - i. Highly confidential GNS contracts and addendums, as well as documents reflecting the negotiations thereof;
- c. Card Acceptance Agreements and Other Related Contracts
 - i. Highly confidential card acceptance agreements and other related contracts, as well as documents reflecting the negotiations thereof, including, in particular, financial terms;
 - ii. Financial terms shall include merchant discount rates, speed of pay provisions, signing bonuses, marketing funds, strategic investment funds, business building bonuses, and any other applicable rebates, incentives or fees;
 - iii. Non-Discrimination Provisions in the non-party contracts and any definitions used therein will not be redacted or sealed;
- d. Non-Public Financial Information
 - i. Detailed, non-public internal financial information that includes, in particular, payment card sales, payment card costs of acceptance, costs and revenue data, and consumer data analytics;
- e. Strategy Documents
 - i. Internal documents pertaining to highly confidential marketing strategies and initiatives, business analyses, and ongoing and future business plans;

f. Non-Public Corporate Policies and Operating Regulations

i. Non-public corporate policies and operating regulations reflecting, inter alia, information designed to protect cardholder and merchant safety and terms of service.

B. Requests of Amex

1. Financial Terms

a. Amex may redact financial terms from any contract or addendum before the document is entered into the trial record;

b. Financial terms include merchant discount rates, speed of pay provisions, signing bonuses, marketing funds, strategic investment funds, business building bonuses, and any other applicable rebates, incentives or fees;

c. To the extent financial terms from any contract or addendum are reflected in other documents, including, but not limited to, emails and presentations, Amex may redact the financial terms from those documents as well;

2. Co-Brand Agreements

a. All co-brand agreements, including those listed in Exhibit 14 to the Declaration of Kevin J. Orsini (“Orsini Declaration”) (Dkt. 437), shall be filed under seal;

3. GNS Contracts

a. All GNS Contracts, including those listed in Exhibit 1 to the Orsini Declaration, shall be filed under seal;

4. All Other Customized Amex Contracts

a. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may redact other customized contractual provisions that reveal highly confidential information;

b. To the extent Plaintiffs object to any such redaction, such dispute shall be presented to the Court no later than the evening before the day of trial during which a party expects to offer such a disputed document into evidence, and to the extent practicable, 48 hours in advance of that day;

5. Contract Negotiation Documents

- a. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may redact the portions of offers made, considered or received in the course of contract negotiations that reflect the types of information referenced in Sections B.1-4 in this Stipulation;
- b. To the extent Plaintiffs object to any such redaction, such dispute shall be presented to the Court no later than the evening before the day of trial during which a party expects to offer such a disputed document into evidence, and to the extent practicable, 48 hours in advance of that day;

6. Merchant Industry Discount Rate Tables

- a. Amex may redact from the public record all financial terms contained in Merchant Industry Discount Rate Tables, including intended trial exhibits PX0194, PX0816, PX1113 and DX6766, listed in Exhibit 22 to the Orsini Declaration, and Exhibit 23 to the Orsini Declaration, including the basic payment plan information, the terms of the speed-of-pay provisions, the industry-level eligibility for business and marketing support, and the industry-specific fees;
- b. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may redact the same financial terms described in Section B.6.a from the public version of any other trial exhibit, including, for example, those financial terms that appear in Exhibit 24 to the Orsini Declaration on pages AMEXNDR13038804, 806, 808 and 815;
- c. To the extent Plaintiffs object to any such redaction, such dispute shall be presented to the Court no later than the evening before the day of trial during which a party expects to offer such a disputed document into evidence, and to the extent practicable, 48 hours in advance of that day;

7. Proprietary Survey Data

- a. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may redact all information reflecting survey methodology or results that reveals highly confidential information, including the documents listed in Exhibit 25 to the Orsini Declaration;

- b. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may also redact the survey results and/or methodology described above that are contained in those documents set forth in Exhibit 25 to the Orsini Declaration, or other similar documents dated after January 1, 2007;
- c. To the extent Plaintiffs object to any such redaction, such dispute shall be presented to the Court no later than the evening before the day of trial during which a party expects to offer such a disputed document into evidence, and to the extent practicable, 48 hours in advance of that day;

8. Corporate Card Pricing Policies

- a. Amex shall be entitled to file under seal all Corporate Card Pricing Policies, including those documents listed on Exhibit 31 to the Orsini Declaration;

9. Cost and Revenue Data

- a. Amex shall be entitled to keep under seal all extracts from the Amex financial databases that reflect internal Amex cost and revenue data and/or merchant-specific cost and revenue data, including, but not limited to, GMAPS, TM1 and Oracle, referenced in the Declaration of Ira Polikoff;
- b. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may redact such cost and revenue data from the public version of any other trial exhibit that reveals highly confidential information, including, for example, Exhibit 46 to the Orsini Declaration;
- c. To the extent Plaintiffs object to any such redaction, such dispute shall be presented to the Court no later than the evening before the day of trial during which a party expects to offer such a disputed document into evidence, and to the extent practicable, 48 hours in advance of that day;

10. Internal Strategy Documents and Competitive Analyses

- a. With the exception of the cover page, Exhibit 50 to the Orsini Declaration shall be filed under seal;
- b. With the exception of the cover page, Exhibit 51 to the Orsini Declaration shall be filed under seal;

- c. To the extent Plaintiffs do not object following good faith discussions, Amex may redact other internal strategy documents and competitive analyses that (1) reveal highly confidential information regarding current or future business plans; and (2) were added to either party's intended trial exhibit list after May 29, 2014;
- d. To the extent Plaintiffs object to any such redaction, such dispute shall be presented to the Court no later than the evening before the day of trial during which a party expects to offer such a disputed document into evidence, and to the extent practicable, 48 hours in advance of that day;

C. Treatment of Testimony At Trial

The parties agree that testimony at trial related to the highly confidential information described above shall be treated in a manner deemed just and appropriate by this Court at the time such testimony is given, pursuant to the guidance provided by the Court at the hearings on June 19 and 27, 2014.
